

SEPTEMBER 25TH, 2010

Come join Adventure Divers Club as we make our 2nd trip to “Dive Valhalla” on September 25th, 2010. How many people have ever even seen a missile silo, much less taken a guided tour and gotten to scuba dive in one? Dive Valhalla facts:

- Only divable Atlas ‘F’ Hardened Missile Silo
- 60’ in diameter and 130’ deep
- Visibility is 100’ or better
- Constant 68 degree air temp and consistent lighting at all times
- Actual dive area is 50’ to 70’ underground
- 2,420 ft above sea level makes this an altitude dive
- Valhalla is from Norse Mythology and means the great hall of fallen heroes
- Nearly 2 million gallons of crystal clear water to dive in

Cost will be $35.00 per diver. We will need 10 divers to book this trip. We can have a maximum of 20 divers on this trip. If we have more than 12 the cost will go down. RSVP to diving@adventurediversclub.com to reserve your spot on this unique and one of kind dive experience.
